Embezzled Church Funds. Henry M. Knowles, an undertaker,

Henry M. Knowles, an undertaker, told yesterday how he had appropriated to his own use $2,200 of money belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Messiah, in Philadelphia, of which he was secretary and treasurer. He said: "Five months ago my wife fell seriously ill. As secretary and treasurer of the vestry of the church, I had charge of about $5,000 of the church funds. My expenses became very heavy as a result of my wife's sickness, and I was driven to desperation to provide for her properly and pay the doctors' bills. Consequently I began to use the church money. I had a prosperous business, and I meant to restore it immediately, but my expenses only increased, and I found that I could not make restitution. It was the death of my wife that blocked my plans. The expenses of her funeral took all the money I could readily raise. Instead of trying to conceal what I had done. I money I could readily raise. Instead of trying to conceal what I had done, I went to the vestry and told them how I had used the money. I arranged to sell my house on Eighteenth street, give the church all the money I could raise in this way and give my notes for the balance. Last Monday afternoon this money was to be turned over to the committee, but before the meeting was held I was arrested by a constable on the charge or embezzlement. That was what I got for trying to rectify my mis-

Movement for Colored Bishop.

In the Methodist Conference in Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday, Dr. George Elliott, of Detroit, presented a memorial to the effect that the committee on episcopacy consider the advisability of the election of a colored bishop. He said that he believed the Methodist Episco-pal Church had reached a crisis in its relations with the colored race. "If we are to hold the 300,000 colored member-ship we now have," he said, "we ought ship we now have," he said, "we ought to give them some sort of leadership which they understand and trust and which understands them." Charles P. McClellan, of New York, lay delegate, spoke in opposition to Dr. Elliott's reso lution. Mr. McClellan said he was very sorry that this resolution was offered at this time; that if the church had reached a crisis in its relations with the color-Money subject to check

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whoop-ing cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by E. S.
